

Therapeutic treats for dogs and cats enriched with the healing powers of hemp—brought to you by Maple the dog and Cedar the feline queen.

MEET MAPLE & CEDAR

“We’re here for dogs and cats who are being held back by health challenges and who are suffering needlessly—day in, day out. We’re here for our animal friends whose only desire is to live well and make their family’s life better. Animals who we know are filled with sadness and pain when they can’t get up to greet their favourite human or run around the yard with the child they’ve grown up with.

“We’re on a mission to change your lives for the better. We want to make sure you know how the healing powers of hemp, combined with some of nature’s most therapeutic ingredients, can help battle symptoms and let you live the life you deserve.

“We’re Maple & Cedar, and we’re here for you!”
